

We are changing our name to Sonepar Sverige AB!

Everything you need to know about our change of name

On May 6th 2025, we are changing our name from Elektroskandia Sverige AB to Sonepar Sverige AB. Below, you will find answers to the most frequently asked questions, as well as details of what the name change means for you as a supplier.

When is the change of name officially implemented?

We are changing our name on 6 May 2025. As from that date, we will be operating under the name of Sonepar Sverige AB in all internal and external communication. We will progressively update our website, signage and materials to ensure a smooth transition.

Why are we changing our name right now?

The change of name to Sonepar Sverige AB is a step in our parent company's strategy to create synergies and boost efficiency within the group. We have been a part of the Sonepar Group since 2008 and we are now taking the next step and changing our name.

How does this affect our business?

It will not have a noticeable effect on everyday operations – our business will continue as usual. By fully becoming a part of Sonepar's global brand, we can leverage the strength and recognition that the name provides internationally. This put us in a stronger position to continue our growth and development, which in turn benefits you, our supplier.

What benefits does the change of name entail for me as a supplier?

You will get the best out of two worlds: the global strength of the world's largest electrical wholesaler combined with our local presence and expertise. Through our innovative logistics solutions, technological skill and focus on sustainability, we can generate even better conditions for your business.

In what way will you notice the change of name in 2025?

You will see our new name and logo on our invoices, agreements and other communication and media. Our employees will be providing information about the change at meetings and in working relationships. At trade events such as Elfack and Elmässan, our new brand will be clearly visible in our display cases and on our material. We will also be running a range of campaigns during the year.

Do I, as a supplier, need to take any actions on account of the change of name?

No, you do not need to take any action at all. All existing agreements and working relationships will continue as usual.

Company name and address

Will the legal structure of the company be altered in connection with the change of name?

No, the legal structure of the company will continue in its present form.

Will there be any changes to the ownership conditions?

No, there will be no changes to ownership conditions for Sonepar Sverige AB. We still belong to the international Sonepar Group, whose head office is in Paris.

Will the postal addresses be changed in connection with the change of name?

No, all postal addresses will remain the same. The only thing that will be changed is the company name, which will become Sonepar Sverige AB.
